Profile

I'm ambitious, determined and communicative person. Always do my job with passion.
I appreciate a good sense of humor, yet professional in the team I work with.
Currently I'm improving my skills in web development. Working especially with ReactJS library brings me the most fun.
I'm no stranger to demanding tasks and challenges and and always curious about new solutions.
If you want to learn more about me, then have a look at my portfolio website (link on the left). Cheers!
