Profile

I'm ambitious, determined and communicative person. I always do my job with passion. I value a good sense of humor, but also a professionalism within the team. I'm currently improving my skills in web development. Working with ReactJS library brings me the most fun. I enjoy taking up new challenges and I am curious about new solutions. If you want to learn more about me, then have a look at my portfolio website (link on the left). Cheers!
